I am following up on an email and phone message in which I asked if it would be possible to look up ancestors of mine in Morgan Iler's research, which was donated to your library at his bequest. His daughter, Elaine Bowers, was kind enough to reply to my letter requesting information about my Iler ancestors, directing me to you.

Please let me know if there is any way the library can look up this information, or if not, if I can hire a researcher in the area who could. I live in New York, so am unable to do it myself. Following is the information on my Iler line:

Mary Iler (1836-1921) was the daughter of John Iler (1810, Washington Co., MD - 1860, Carroll Co., IL), the son of David Iler (1784, Littlestown, PA - 1870, Ogle Co., IL) and Mary Ann Harmon, the son of Philip Iler (dates unknown).

Dear Monroe:

I just thought that I would give you a little update on what is going on with me. I have several irons in the fire and may get some good results in the next few weeks.

I have just written to Gregory Oyler that you mentioned. The Philip that was mentioned in his family tree could bethe right age to be my Philip. By studying the land records between 1820 and 1846 in Washington Co. Md. and also across the line into Franklin Co. Pa., I believe that I have the names of Philip and Anna's five sons as shown in the 1800 census. They would beDavid, Michael, Philip, John and Samuel. I have a copy of Michael's Will. It shows that he had a wife Barbara and son David. These 3 were in the burial records of the Evangelical Luth. Church at Waynesboro, Franklin Co. Pa. This would place he and David as the 2 sons in the 1790 census. My David had sons that he named John, David, and Samuel. If he had two more sons I bet that they would have been named Michael and Philip! His first child, Elizabeth was named after his sister and I do not know his other sister's name. It seems to tie together pretty well, although it does take some more proof.

1781

I have ordered an Eiler, Iler, Oyler report of 52 pages on these names in York Co. Pa. up to the date 1850. Hope to find out something about my family from this, and am certain to get some info. about your family. Also ordered or tried to order the Eilor book from that dentist in N.MJ but he has not answered my letter, so I assume that he does not have any more to sell.

EOR To

It gets so frustrating some times when I try to tie lines to gether. I have lineages of 3 different lines from the immigrant ancestors. They lived in the same areas-used the same names for their children-in the same years-and are not connected at all! Well I guess that is what makes life interesting for those of us trying to solve our family history!

Was certainly trying to hook onto Conrad's family but it is looking a little dimmer all the time. I would feel real good about having relatives like yourself, Mrs. Herda and Kenneth Gehrner . At least we have the same background in names.

I have checked the Pa. Archives Series and Egle's Notes and Queries, but will have to take time for a recheck on the names in other counties of Pa. This should take care of me for quite a while! Thanks again for everything, and I will keep you posted if I find anything for you. I am sure you will do the same.

Sincerely,

Ralph Kirchner

Mr. W. Monroe Oyler
315 Cambridge Drive
Decatur, Ill. 62526

Dear Monroe:

I have never met anyone by the name of Oyler before, but feel that we are old friends after receiving your interesting letter. Thanks for all the information and for several leads. I did not know where David was born in Pa., but assumed that it was in York Co. Several families that married into the Iler family, and many neighbors in both Wash. Co. Md and in Ogle Co. Ill., came from York Co. Pa. I don't think David Iler ever lived in Hagerstown. His home was in Sharpsburg, but he was married in Hagerstown- possibly because it was the County Seat and the headquarters of the Lutheran Church.

Before I answered your letter, I waited to see if I could get some results from your leads. I received a wonderful letter from Mrs. Herda, as well as several ancestor charts and family group sheets showing her descent from Conrad. She has an ancestor named Shanks. I too have a Shanks who was a grandmother of my Polly Harmon. Perhaps we are related in those lines also! Hope to find out.

A week later I received a long and important letter from Mr. Kenneth Gehner. He gave me the proof from the records of Christ Reformed Church of Littlestown, York Co. Pa. David's parents were Philip and Anna Euler. A lady from Calif. had given me those names with a birthdate of Apr. 25, 1784, although she said that it could have been a Bapt. date. She did not know where she got this information so I couldn't rely on it for my record. It did turn out to be the exact Bapt. date with the birth date of Dec. 25, 1783, which is almost the calculated birthdate from his gravestone. I had thought Philip and Anna were his parents for some time but needed better proof. They were the only Ilers in Wash. Co. in 1790 and 1800. They had 2 boys and 2 girls in 1790 and added 3 more boys by 1800. They sold their land in 1810, but are not in the 1810 census when David first shows up married. Philip either passed away or moved before the census taker came around. Polly's parents lived just two doors away from Philip all this time. Kenneth could not, however connect Philip to any of the lines from Conrad. There are two grandsons of Conrad's that he does not have a full listing for, which could allow a place for Philip; Jacob's son Jacob and Valentine's son Frederick. I guess I will just keep looking.

I haven't heard from Thomas Oyler yet, but from what I hear he is probably busy shoveling snow! We have had practically no snow this winter and temperatures of 50 degrees the last several days. If it keeps on like that my ice fishing days are over for this winter.

I am three years younger than you, married 46 yrs. We have two sons, 4 grandchildren, and have a number of Prudential policies! I have been retired for a little more than six years.

Thanks again for all your help and information. I am enclosing David's family group sheet in case it can be of help to you.

Sincerely,

Ralph Kirchner

Dear Mr. Oyler,

I received your name & address from a lady in Tulsa OK. She stated that you had a number of listings of Eiler, Iler, Oiler, groups. I have been searching for many years for the parents, brothers & sisters of my g g grandfather, David Iler, & would appreciate anything you could do for me.

He was born Dec 31, 1783 (by tombstone) or early 1784 in Pa, according to several census reports. He was married at Hagerstown Md. on Nov. 12, 1807 to Mary "Polly" Harmon. My first positive identification of him was in Sharpsburg, Wash. Co. Md. in 1810, with wife & first child. They had ten children there, & then moved to Ogle Co. Ill. in 1837. All the children raised familys there, before, they in turn scattered to the 4 winds.

I hope that you can help me with this, & I in return will do whatever I can to help you. Will enclose a S.A.S.E. for your convenience. Thank you very very much.

Sincerely,

1. JOSEPH EYLER, our immigrant ancestor, was born in the Kingdom of Wurtemburg, Germany on Sept. 22, 1759; died near Fincastle, Eagle Township, Brown County, Ohio on July 29, 1839 in his 80th year, according to his tombstone in the Wilson (Aerl) Cemetery about one mile east of Fincastle. This is the oldest burial place in Eagle Township, the first burial being in 1809. He was the son of George and Catherine Eyler who lived and died in Germany, leaving a family of eight children,- Joseph, George, Christopher, Henry, Peter, Catherine, Barbara and Mary. The three sisters married brothers by the name of Fenstermacher; Joseph and Henry came to America; of the others, nothing is known.

In 1777, when about 18 years of age, Joseph Eyler, with his brother Henry, ran away from home to escape service in the German army. After walking 800 miles to the coast, Joseph shipped for America, selling himself for his passage. According to the custom then in vogue, he agreed to work as many months as necessary to make return of the advancement of passage money. Young Eyler religiously kept his part of this contract. This regard for his word, no matter what it cost, was one of the marked traits of his character all through his life. He arrived at Baltimore in the fall of 1777. From that time until the period of his marriage little is known of him, except that he was engaged as a wagoner and accumulated enough to own a four-horse team and a "Conestoga" of his own. The "Conestoga" wagon was a kind of broad wheeled covered wagon for transporting heavy loads long distances over soft soil and on prairies. This wagon was developed by the Pennsylvania Germans and was manufactured at Conestoga, Lancaster County, Penn. It was the freight train of that era.

In 1787, Joseph Eyler married Mary Ann Rosenmiller, daughter of George Ludwig "Lewis" and Barbara (Bower) Rosenmiller, in Pennsylvania. She was born in Pennsylvania on Jan. 12, 1767; died near Fincastle, Brown County, Ohio on Mar. 13, 1841 at the age of 74 years, and was buried beside her husband in Wilson Cemetery. She was straight and trim in her appearance, her shoulders never drooping in the least even in advanced age. She was a great stickler for blood and breeding, holding that what was bred in a child could not be eliminated. Joseph, her husband, held the opposite view, holding that birth and blood counted for nothing; that if a man or woman were worthy their ancestry was not a matter for consideration. She was the best of mothers and kindest of neighbors. She was charitable to the poor, gentle with the erring, and always made allowances for the ignorant and superstitious. Old and young went to her when in trouble or distress.

This marriage was opposed by the Rosenmiller family. The breech in the domestic life of the Rosenmillers caused by the clandestine marriage of Mary Ann remained until her death. Her sisters had married well, and they never lost the opportunity to remind her of the fact. So soon after the birth of their first child, Joseph, they removed to Bucks County, Penn., and then to Bedford County, Penn. Here we find them in the 1790 census of Bedford County:

Joseph "Oyler": 1 male over 16 (the father), 1 male under 16 (Joseph his son), 2 females (The mother and Mary).

Bedford was a frontier town from which goods were distributed to the settlements in western Virginia and Kentucky. It was a point where the young wagoner found ready employment, as all freight was carried in wagons. These wagons traveled in squads to be of help and protection to each other. If a team stalled, the remainder of the drivers, or as many as necessary, hooked on and helped pull it out. The owner of the disgraced team was obliged to set up a quart of whiskey, in order to wipe out the ignominy. It is related that Joseph Eyler, in all his career as teamster, never had to set up the whiskey. His Pennsylvania team was made up of four black, shiny stallions, and created a sensation everywhere with their tingling bells and enormous loads. He was always noted for the size and condition of his horses. In good weather he always turned them out at night, and as they played and galloped over the fields they fairly shook the earth. During a storm he always opened the doors of his stable and untied his horses, saying that instinct taught them whether it was better to remain in or go out.

Joseph Eyler was a man of striking appearance. He was five feet five inches tall and weighed about three hundred pounds. His complexion was very fair, hair dark, eyes steel blue, head large, - in fact so large as to compel him to have his hats made to order. He was a handsome man, courtly in his manners and interesting in his conversation. In his earlier days he dressed in the style of his countrymen, short coat and knee britches of velvet, silver knee buckles, black silk stockings, low-cut shoes with silver buckles, ruffled cuffs and ruffled shirt front, and a broad-brimmed beaver hat with a low crown. He always carried a cane with a silver head, and altogether was a perfect picture of the thrifty and well satisfied German gentlemen. He spoke English tolerably well, but preferred to use his native language when possible to do so. His household language, until his family was grown, was the German, and he always read and prayed in that tongue. It was the rule in his household to read a portion of God's Holy Word followed by family prayer, every evening.

In 1795, Joseph Eyler, his wife and four small children, in company with others, left Bedford, Penn., for the then far northwest territory opened in Ohio. They came down the Ohio by keel-boat and landed at the "Three Islands" where Nathaniel Massie had founded the town of Manchester. Eyler tended a patch of corn on the lower island that summer, and the following winter built a cabin on a tract of three hundred acres purchased near Killinstown. This was the first cabin built in Tiffin Township. The next year Rev. James B. Finley passed over Tod's old trace from Limestone to the new settlement at Chillicothe and noted the fact that there was a "cabin near the present site of West Union, built by "Mr. Oiler," but no one was living in it." Eyler's original tract was owned in 1900 by Sandy Craigmile, John Crawford, and Samuel McFeeters.

Joseph Eyler moved into his cabin in 1796. He then had four small children - Joseph, Mary, Sarah and Catherine - and here were born John, Samuel, Martin, Henry, David, Lewis, George, Aaron and Elizabeth. Of these, five died in childhood - Samuel, Martin, David, Lewis and George - are buried at Killinstown. He cleared away the forest and soon possessed one of the best farms in that portion of the country. He was industrious and economical, and accumulated considerable wealth for those times. He was frequently called on to serve in local official positions such as "lister" of property, being a man of good judgment and a great deal of common sense. In Sept. 1797 he was appointed reviewer of a court order for a road. On Sept. 11, 1798 he is listed as juror for a session of court. The 1810 tax list of Adams County lists "Joseph Oyler".

From Killinstown he moved to a farm near Winchester, on what was later known as the "Massie Farm". He resided there a few years, and then bought a farm in about 1820 near Berryville, in Washington township, Highland County where he conducted a distillery. The 1830 census of Hillsboro, Highland County, Ohio lists the family thus:

Joseph Eylar, 1 male 60 to 70, 1 female 60 to 60, 1 female 20 to 30
(no doubt, daughter Elizabeth Ann who was then 24 and still single)

He remained there until 1834 when he disposed of his property and removed to Brown County, Ohio, on a farm later owned by his grandson, Carey C. Eylar, north of the village of Fincastle. Here he died, in 1839; Mary Ann died in 1841.

But one member of Joseph Eyler's family is known to have come to this country from Germany, his brother Henry, who followed him to Pennsylvania and finally to Ohio. Henry Eyler was a carpenter and woodworker. While at work on the roof of a house he fell to the ground and was made a permanent cripple. The injury was in the thigh and repeatedly the injured portion became highly inflamed. It was the opinion of physicians that cure could only be effected through amputation. To this he strongly objected. He followed his brother to Adams County, and remained with him for some time. His brother, noticing that at times he was melancholy, questioned him as to the cause. After some hesitation he informed Joseph that he had taken a wife in Pennsylvania; that she made life so unpleasant for him that he had been forced to desert her. They had no children.

His brother Joseph's daughter Sarah having married James Collier (1809), and removed to Wayne County, Ohio, Henry followed. While there his injured leg again became inflamed, worse than ever before. One day he took his dinner pail and went to work in a clearing, but did not return at the accustomed time. A search was made for him. His dinner pail was found on a stump, untouched, where he had placed it. He could not be found although the search was continued for some time. Then letters were written to Adams County, telling of his disappearance and asking if he were there. The relatives knew nothing of him. Some three years later, a neighbor boy, attracted by the strange conduct of his dog at the entrance of a huge hollow log, went to it and was horrified at the sight of a human skeleton. He notified the neighbors and the remains were removed. An examination was made, and it was recognized as the remains of Henry Eyler, by the buttons on the clothing and by the contents of the pockets.

ROSENMÜLLER (ROSENMILLER) FAMILY

The Rosenmüllers belonged to the aristocracy of Saxony, Germany, and intermarried with the nobility. The family home was in Zwickan, Saxony, where a number of the family remained. Among those in correspondence with the American branch in the early 1900s were Rev. Dr. George Frederick Herman Rosenmüller, Lutheran clergyman, and Herman Rosenmuller.

1. GEORGE LUDWIG ROSENMÜLLER (LEWIS ROSENMILLER), the immigrant ancestor, was born in Germany on July 14, 1731; he died July 14, 1819 at the age of 88 years, according to his gravestone in the Lutheran Cemetery at Abbottstown, Pennsylvania. He married Barbara Bower, who died a few years before her husband, and is said to be buried also in the Abbottstown Cemetery.

He came to America in the ship "Neptune" from Rotterdam, Captain Ware, master. He qualified as a citizen of Pennsylvania, taking the oath of allegiance on Sept. 30, 1754. (Penn. Archives, Series 2, Vol. 17, p. 437). He settled in York county, where we find him on the tax list of 1779, 1780, 1781, 1782 (also paid tax on Bower's land), 1783 (10 persons); this was in Huntington township. There is also listed at various times in the same tax lists,- Widow Bower, Abraham Bower, John Bower, Frederick Bower, Michael Bower, Bower's estate,- and in 1783 Michael Bower paid a tax on "land of Rosemiller". These persons may be related to Barbara Bower Rosenmiller. (Penn. Archives, Series 3, Vol. 21, p. 133, 266, 479, 509, 747). We find in the census of Penn. 1790, York county, - "Lodiwick Rosemiller", 1 male over 16 - the father, 1 male under 16 - Lewis age 12, 4 females - the daughters still at home.

His political scruples were such as forbade him taking any part in the great struggle for independence between the Colonists and England. His education in his native land had taught him to obey and respect the authority of the ruling power. At the same time he loved and respected his neighbors, who were at war with their sovereign, so he remained neutral and gave assistance to the families of soldiers of both sides. However, he could not always control the patriotism of those about him. One of his servants named Batwell, whom he brought from Germany with him, was a violent Tory and taught his children to end their prayers in loudest tones, "God bless good King George". This so incensed the neighbors that they frequently insulted him in public. On one occasion as he went to vote he was literally carried to the polls on the fists of coming revolutionists, each of whom took a punch at him as he was wafted toward the box.

Lewis Rosenmiller was a merchant and manufacturer until the countyy became so overwhelmed with political disturbances. About this time he suffered the loss by death of his beloved wife, Barbara, a woman of lovely and affectionate disposition. Being depressed by his political and domestic troubles, and having ample means to provide for his family, he resolved upon absolute retirement from the field of business and worldly care. He retired to an upper chamber of his stately mansion. He gave to his daughter, Mary Ann, the responsibility of the household. During his retirement the family frequently sought to induce him to give up his secluded life, but to no avail. They felt keenly the loss of his kindly association, and doubly bereft after the recent death of their mother, for they seldom saw their father and were never in any way permitted to break in on his seclusion.

He was highly skilled in the use of tools, his particular avocation being that of silver and gold smith. He was also an artist of ability, being adept in the use of the graver and brush. In his seclusion he began a series of mechanical experiments. He frequently sent orders to New York, Hanover, Germany and other cities for quantities of metal. After his death, which occured during the seventh year of his seclusion, there was found in his room hundreds of wheels, prawls, and pinions of all sizes, made of lead, gold, silver, and other metals. Expert machinists were called in to examine the work he had left behind, but they were unable to classify it; however it was generally believed that it represented some problem or idea in perpetual motion which the mechanics of centuries have tried to solve.

Lewis and Barbara (Bower) Rosenmiller had eight children:
(arranged hypothetically as to order of birth)

(2) i. Mary Ann Rosenmiller, b. Jan. 12, 1767; d. Mar. 13, 1841; m. Joseph Eyler

ii. Rose Ann Rosenmiller, m. Rev. David Schaeffer; had children.

iii. Barbara Ann Rosenmiller, m. _____ Hoffman; had children.

iv. Catherine Ann Rosenmiller, m. 1st _____ Weaver, 2nd _____ Hoss

v. Elizabeth Ann Rosenmiller, b. Feb. 19, 1773; d. Sept. 23, 1833 (from tombstone in Lutheran Cemetery, Abbottstown, Penn.); m. Charles Reinhardt; had children.

vi. Anna Rosenmiller

vii. Julia Ann Rosenmiller, m. George Henry.

viii. Ludwig (Lewis) Rosenmiller, b. Mar. 13, 1778; d. 1858 at York, Penn; m. 1st Rebecca Culbertson Porter, 2nd Eliza Eichelberger; had children. He was the proprietor of one of the first stores in York, Penn. There were two windows in the front of the store; on one he had the name spelled "Rosenmuller", on the other "Rosenmiller". He gave the reason for this spelling that the English - speaking people never knew how to pronounce the name when it was spelled correctly.

2. MARY ANN ROSENMILLER - EYLER was born in Pennsylvania on Jan. 12, 1767; she died near Fincastle, Brown County, Ohio, on Mar. 13, 1841 in her 75th year according to her tombstone in the Wilson Cemetery near there. She was the daughter of Lewis and Barbara (Bower) Rosenmiller.

Mary Ann was about 12 years of age in the most perilous and exciting times of the Revolution. She frequently spoke of having seen Generals Gage and Putnam, and Benedict Arnold, who afterward passed into history as The Traitor. She also said that she had stood out in the evenings listening to the thundering of the cannons of the opposing armies. She remained at home looking with a mother's solicitiude over the household placed in her care until about 20 years of age, when she was privately married to Joseph Eyler. In fact, the marriage was an elopement. Her family was bitterly opposed to the union, on the ground that the groom was a poor young man, and nothing was known of his ancestry. The Rosenmillers were a proud and haughty family, enjoying and displaying all the advantages that wealth brings. They appealed to the sister in every way possible to put the young German aside, but to no avail. She loved the obscure and unknown youth and resolved to go his way. To spare the feelings of her family and to avoid a scene, an evening was designated upon which the swain was to appear and together they were to repair to the home of a neighboring minister and become one. When the evening arrived she went to her room in the upper portion of the house as if to retire for the night. At the appointed hour young Eyler appeared with a ladder. The window was raised and the young lady descended to the ground without raising an alarm. A friendly minister some three miles away tied the knot and they started on life's journey together. This union was the head of our particular branch of the Eylar family in America.

2. JOSEPH EYLAR, eldest son of Joseph and Mary Ann (Rosenmiller) Eyler, was born in Pennsylvania on Apr. 7, 1789, according to "Maxwell History and Genealogy"; died at Winchester, Ohio in May 1851 at the age of 62 years and was buried there.

He married, first, in Adams Co., Ohio on June 29, 1814, Elizabeth Fenton, daughter of Jeremiah and Roseannah (Lawrence) Fenton. She was born in Fayette Co., Pennsylvania, probably in 1792; died in Winchester, Ohio on Jan. 23, 1835 at the age of 43 years and was buried there. She was a plain, honest, hard working, good sort of woman; she was a splendid wife and helpmate to her husband, and they became rich for the times in which they lived.

Joseph married, secondly, in 1835 in Adams Co., Ohio, another Elizabeth Fenton, daughter of John and Sarah (Field) Fenton. John Fenton and the first Elizabeth Fenton were first cousins. This second Elizabeth was born in Adams County, Ohio on Dec. 9, 1813, although she spent her early years in Mason County, Key., where her parents went to live after the death of her grandfather, William Field. She died at Winchester, Ohio on Nov. 22, 1875 at the age of 62 years and was buried there. See FENTON FAMILY #6 for her ancestry.

Joseph Eylar resided at Winchester, Ohio the principal part of his life. He carried on the tanning business at that point, in connection with farming. He was a man of prominence in his community, acting as Associate Judge of Adams County from Feb. 4, 1835 to May 1, 1849. Under the system two Associate Judges, appointed by the governor, sat with a member of the Supreme Court, on a bench afterward supplanted by the Court of Common Pleas. The Associate Judges were not necessarily, or usually, attorneys. They were selected because of their recognized character for honesty, and disposition to deal justly in all controversies arising between man and man, submitted to them for adjudication. Judge Joseph Eylar was a short, stockily built man, of swarthy complexion, very firm in his convictions, frank in his expressions, yet kind and charitable withal. He died of paralysis, after an illness of several months. He had seventeen children, ten by his first wife and seven by his second wife.

Judge Joseph Eylar's Family Bible containing records of both marriages and all his children is now in possession of Elizabeth (Eylar) Meek of Scarsdale, N. Y., a great granddaughter of his second marriage. This bible was published and sold by Kimber and Sharpless, 8 so. 4th St., Philadelphia, Pa. There is no date on it.

3. SAMUEL H. EYLAR, eldest son of Judge Joseph and Elizabeth (Fenton) Eylar, was born at Winchester, Adams Co., Ohio on Sept. 3, 1836; died in Doniphan Co., Kansas on Sept. 2, 1900 at the age of 64 years, and was buried at Denton Cemetery where his grave is well marked. He did not marry. He left Ohio as a young man, going first to Missouri and Kansas. Finally he went to Oklahoma, where he was in the "land run" of Apr. 22, 1889. He staked out a claim, the North East Quarter of Section 17 in Township 12 North of Range 2 West of Indian Meridian, in Oklahoma Territory, containing 160 acres. He made the final payment of $4.00 on June 8, 1896, thus securing his claim. On August 6, 1896 this land was granted to him by the United States Government.

The last year of his life was spent at the home of his brother, James Eylar, in Doniphan Co., Kansas. He willed this property in Oklahoma to his nephew, Joseph Wilkins Eylar, who had been kind and helpful to him in his later years. Some of this property is still in possession of the Eylar family.

4. JAMES MONROE EYLAR, second son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Fenton) Eylar, was born at Winchester, Adams Co., Ohio on June 3, 1838; died at Everest, Kansas on Jan. 30, 1915 at the age of 76 years, and was buried at Denton Cemetery.

He married at West Union, Adams County, Ohio on Mar. 5, 1862, Louisa Belle Sample, daughter of Matthew and Elizabeth (Gulliford) Sample. She was born near Jacksonville, Adams Co., Ohio on July 26, 1840; died at Harrisburg, Penn. on Feb. 26, 1921 at the age of 80 years, and was buried at Denton Cemetery. At the time of her death, she was visiting her son Matt Eylar. She was a fine needlewoman and won many prizes at the county fairs. She enjoyed raising bees and sold much honey. She was expert at mounting birds and animals. The writer remembers especially the adorable straw doll hats she made for her dolls!

James Monroe Eylar spent his boyhood and youth at Winchester, Ohio, and attended school there. His father died when he was 13 years of age. He went to Kansas in 1854 at the age of 16 years and settled on a claim near Doniphan to secure it for his uncles, Alfred and Matt Fenton, who lived near Rushville, Missouri. He made the journey from Cincinnati to St. Louis on the steamer Castle Garden, and from St. Louis to Atchison on the steamer Honduras. He disembarked at George William's landing on the Missouri River opposite Atchison in September 1854. He often mentioned that the area had a blank and forbidding appearance and that many of the men he encountered on the way from Ohio to Kansas were characteristically "wild and woolly". He went to his destination on what was later the Langdon farm and during the next three years "played farmer" to a practical purpose.

In 1857 he went back to Adams Co., Ohio and made his home there for the next eight years, which included the years of the Civil War. He entered the service of the United States government in 1863, as a teamster in the quartermaster's department. The command to which he was attached traversed the states of Kentucky and Tennessee, and it was his fortune to be present at the siege of Knoxville, Tenn. After two years of service, which ended with the cessation of hostilities, he was discharged.

In 1865, with his wife and small daughter Jenny, he went to Buchanan Co., Missouri where he farmed. Between 1869 and 1875 he farmed near Bendena in Doniphan Co., Kansas, living about one half mile from the first Pony Express Station from St. Jospeh, Mo. called "Syracuse". About 1875 he moved back to near Rushville, Mo. and rented the farm called the "Ross place" from his uncle Matt Fenton. On Mar. 1, 1881 he moved to the 160 acre farm which he had purchased in Union Township, Doniphan Co., Kansas, about six miles south of the town of Denton. This became the "home place"; it is on Independence Creek and is a beautiful rolling piece of land with wooded hillsides.

The family lived in a three room log cabin which had been built several years before by slaves. There was a ladder-like stairs to the second floor where the older children slept,- the younger ones sleeping in a trundle bed in the parents' room. The writer remembers the fascination of climbing that "ladder" as a little girl and looking into the "upstairs". A large two-story white frame house was built about 1894, and the family moved from the log cabin. The log house stood on the farm for many years and was finally torn down.

The children inherited the farm after the mother's death. Later one of the sons, Matt, bought out the rest. He also purchased several adjoining farms until he had 1,400 acres which he developed into the "Jim and Lou" Eylar ranch, where fine Aberdeen Angus cattle were raised. Many improvements were made and the ranch became a show place. His nephew, Jim Swartz, was the manager.

James Monroe Eylar was a great reader and had a good memory. He loved to visit with his friends. He was much interested in family records and history. He loved to hunt and fish.

2. ELIZABETH VIRGINIA EYLAR - SWARTZ, daughter of James Monroe and Louisa Belle (Sample) Swartz, was born in Adams County, Ohio on Feb. 7, 1863; died at Everest, Kansas on Dec. 15, 1932 at the age of nearly 70 years, and was buried at Denton Cemetery, Denton, Kansas.

"Jennie" Eylar, as she was called, was married at her home in Union Township, Doniphan County, Kansas on Sept. 13, 1882, to Christian S. Swartz, son of John and Margaret (Blair) Swartz. He was born in Doniphan County, Kansas, near Denton on Jan. 7, 1861; died at Everest, Kansas on Aug. 23, 1934 at the age of 73 years and was buried at Denton Cemetery.

OBITUARY OF CHRISTIAN S. SWARTZ 5749

Christian S. Swartz was the oldest of five children. His mother died when he was fourteen years of age and both sorrow and hardship were his lot for three or four years following. Then there came to the home a step-mother who bestowed on the lonesome and heart hungry boy the affection, guidance and care of a true mother heart and replaced sad memories with happy experiences that caused him often in later years to speak of his stepmother with gratitude and affection.

5747 Chris and Jenny began their married life on a farm near Denton where they lived for 12 years, and then 38 years ago they moved to the farm 3 miles east of Everest now the Jim Swartz home. About 22 years ago they moved to Everest and cared for Mrs. Swartz' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Eylar until their death, 5599-5743 then moved to a farm opposite the South Fork School house where they resided for 7 years, then returned to Everest where they remained until the death of Mrs. Swartz. Since then Mr. Swartz has made his home with his sons John and Jim, who with their wives and families did all that love and care could do to make pleasant the closing years of his life.

Besides his sons, John and Jim, and their wives, he is survived by the grandsons, Keith and Robert Swartz, a granddaughter Mrs. Helen Shade, and was preceded three weeks ago by his grandson Price to their heavenly home. A very strong bond of affection binds these families together and makes their sorrows the keener to bear. He is also survived by a brother, J. C. Swartz, of Atchison, Kansas, a sister, Mrs. J. R. Steele, Dekalb, Mo., and a great grandson, Phillip Shade. He united with the Methodist church in Everest in 1914 and has lived a consistent Christian life to the last.

Mr. Swartz was a quiet, unassuming and unselfish man. Industrious, a good farmer and manager, a dependable friend and neighbor and held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. Over a period of 30 years his gradually failing eyesight limited his activities but could not overcome his indomitable spirit. As his contribution to the development of this community cannot be measured so the joys of the companionships and glories into which he has entered are infinitely beyond measurement. The many friends join in sympathy for the bereaved ones.

REV. CLARENCE A. EYLER. The subject of this sketeh is the son of the late Rev. Daniel Jacobs Eyler and Christiana C. (nee Kurtz). Rev. Eyler was born at Waynesboro, Franklin County, Pennsylvania, January 29, 1858. He was baptized by Rev. J. F. Campbell, the pastor of the Lutheran Church of Waynesboro, and confirmed at the age of fourteen by Rev. Alfred Buhrman. After graduating from the Waynesboro High School he entered Pennsylvania College, graduating with the class of 1880, and also graduating from the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg with the class of 1883. He was licensed to preach the Gospel by the Maryland Synod at Emmitsburg, Maryland, in 1883 and ordained at Newton, Iowa, in 1884 by the Iowa Synod.

His first pastorate was that of Ely and North Liberty Churches in Iowa, which he served from 1883 to 1885. In the latter year he removed to Lisbon, Iowa, serving the church at Clarence, Iowa, in connection with the Lisbon Church. During this pastorate he was married to Myrtle A. Boston, of Shickshinny, Pennsylvania. The severity of the winters of Iowa so impaired his health that he was compelled to seek a milder climate. Through the efforts of Rev. George D. Gotwald, Minneapolis and Leavenworth, Kansas, were the scenes of his labors from 1887 to 1891. He was again compelled to make a change and returned to Waynesboro, Pennsylvania. He was traveling agent for the Lutheran Observer for one year. Christ's Church of Trenton, New Jersey, was his last pastorate. A very severe illness of eight months necessitated his giving up the active work of the ministry in 1890. Although now engaged in secular work he never misses an opportunity to preach Christ and Him crucified.

Dear Mr. Kirchner,

I received your letter of January 7, and after searching my files, I believe I have information which will help you. From the 1939 translation of Henry James young of the records of Christ Reformed Church, Littlestown, PA (1747-1871):

child	birth date / baptism d.	parents	sponsors
David	no birth d. / 25 MAY 1783	Johannes STANG / Margaretha	Philipp EULER / Anna
David	25 DEC 1783 / 25 APR 1784	Philip EULER / Anna	Johannes STANG / Margaretha

As you may know, in the early German records, the surname EULER was often used. This is properly pronounced OILER/OYLER. But in some southern German dialects there was a sound shift of "oi" to "ei", so EULER became EILER/EYLER/ILER. So, given the matching names (as in Wash Co, MD) and approximate date of birth, I believe that the above baptism record is for your David Iler. Unfortunately, the above records are the only EULER or version of the EULER name in the Littlestown, PA Reformed Church. Also, I don't know of other baptism records of Philip Euler's children, but I have not done an exhaustive search in area churches.

The question of whether or not this Philip Euler was a descendant of Conrad, the 1729 immigrant, is a difficult one. But from the information I have collected, I do not have evidence that he was a grandson. However, I hope that you will be willing to share with me whatever information you have from Washington Co, MD on EILER/ILER families. I have spent most of my research effort in Frederick Co, MD and York & Adams Co, PA, so I do not have much information from Washington Co, MD although I do know there were descendants of Conrad, the 1729 immigrant, there.

I will explain why I do not know that your Philip EULER, father of David b. 1783, is a grandson of Conrad Euler I agree that Conrad Euler had two sons: Jacob b. circa 1720 [C4] and Valentine [C5] b. circa 1722. From the 1797 Bedford Co, PA, Orphans Court record for the children of Jacob EYLER/OYLER there are 8 sons listed: Frederick [C44] b. 1743 "eldest son", Jacob [C42] b. 1744, Valentine [C43] b. ca 1745, Conrad [C41] b. ca 1749 "4th son";

John b. unknown, but prob. circa 1750, Jonas (C46) b. 1752 or 1754, Peter (C47) and Lawrence (C48) both b. in mid-1750s (from later census records). Of these people, I have incomplete records on Jacob & Peter, but since Peter is too young to be Philip's father, this leaves the possibility of Jacob Euler/Oyler (C42) b. 1744. At least he is old enough, and the first known son of his that I have is Peter b. 18 JUN 1771 (bapt. at St. Matthews Luth Ch., Hanover, PA) — when Jacob would have been 27 years old. He could have other children baptized at other churches. I have not located any will or estate administration records for him either, so this remains a possibility. Notice also that Hanover and Littlestown are not that far apart.

Regarding the children of Valentine (C5) b. ca 1722, I believe he had four sons: John (C52) b. 1746, Frederick (C54) b. 1749, Jacob (C51) b. 1756, Valentine (C56) b. 1754. The children of John, Jacob, and Valentine have been fairly well documented. I again do not have much information on Frederick (C54) b. 1749, and the first known child I have record of is Catharina (C542) b. 1776 — when he would have been about 27 years old, so earlier children are possible.

I hope that you will find this information useful. I would very much appreciate receiving information on the children of David Adler in Washington Co, MD and later Illinois. I am enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your reply.

Sincerely,
Kenneth Gehner

Dear Mr. Gehrner:

I am very happy to give you everything I have on the Md. Ilers. ~~Many years ago our library could get census listings from other states for all years.~~ Our David Iler was listed under that spelling, ~~so that was the only name we kept trackof. We later realized that we whould have taken all spellings.~~ When we were in Wash. Co. Md. a few years ago we did take all spellings from the land records, which I am enclosing. I am quite certain that these are the names of the 5 brothers, David, Michael, Philip, John and Samuel. This needs to be proven though. Michael had a son David. Our David had 3 sons named John[2], David[7], and Samuel[9]. He also named his first child Elizabeth, which was his sister's name. This is interesting to think about, but still might be just a co-incidence. NF06

In the death records I have from the Evangelical Luth. Church of Waynesboro, Pa. are the following:

				calc. birth
9 Apr 1859	Michael Eyler	72 y 9 m 25 d	2:296	15Jun1786
15 Mar 1860	Rev. D. J. Eyler	34 y 5 m 5 d	9940	10Oct1825
17June 1860	S. Barbara Eyler	66y 7 m 7 d	34072	10Nov1793

I believe that these are Michael, his wife Barbara and his son David. Waynesboro is in Franklin Co. and is just across the line from Washington Co. . His Will was certified 17 May 1859. David and Michael would be the two sons listed in 1790 census.

I have a lot more work to do on this family, but think that most of the searching will have to be done in Pa. We are a bit limited as to what our State Hist. Library has on Pa. records. Maybe we can be real lucky and find out a few things on our next trip east.

I have written to the So. Central Pa. Gen. Soc. for a full Report on the Eiler, Iler, Oyler names in York Co. up to 1850. Will let you know if I get any help from this.

There was a Philip Euler that arrived Sept 27,1752, as well as the Philip Jacob Ohler in 1768. Dozens of Ilers of various spellings came in the 1700's Any one of them could be an ancestor of Philip. ~~This would be a hard way of going at it unless a person found some naturalization papers that would lead to family listings.~~

~~Thanks again for all your help~~. Thanks again for all your help. I am deeply grateful--will send you any additional information that I get.

Sincerely,

Oilers

Dear Mr. Kirchner,

I had not had an opportunity to thank you for your family group sheet of David ILER before I received your second letter. Thank you for both letters and all the good information. I am also pleased that my information was able to help you solve at least one problem.

I tend to agree with you that your Philip ILER was probably not one of the grandchildren of Conrad EULER/ILLER, the 1729 immigrant. However, I wanted to point out another possibility as a source of the EULER surname which I have never seen explored before. From Strassburger & Hinke, German Pioneers, for the 1729 ship "Allen" passenger lists:

on list A: Ulderick ELEY (two names away from Conrat ILLER)
Eve Tabaek ELEE

on list B: Uldrich OELLEN (again, two names away from Conrad OELLEN) on list C: Hans Ulrich OELEN (two away from Conrath OELLEN).

In other words, I would imagine that there must be American records of a Ulrich EULER/ILER. However, I have never located these records, although I have never truly made a systematic search. In any case, I would be interested if you ever run across records of an Ulrich EULER/ILER of the mid-1700 period.

Thank you for your land records for Washington Co, MD. I didn't have these, but I have a large file of "unidentified" EILER/ILER/etc. individuals. From this file I located the following information which is relevant to the families you are studying:

(1) from Church Register Name Index at MD Hist Soc. in Baltimore:

David EILER NF∅6 of Sharpsburg, MD; wife Mary Ann NF∅6 father of Mary Ann EILER NF∅67 q.v. [I have not checked this] b. 19 AUG 1819 bap. 14 NOV 1819 at the Reformed Church of Shepherdstown, W. Va. [remember that this is really Virginia for the time period – W. VA. was formed during the Civil War]

I believe this might well be another daughter of your David ILER, given the place and time [from your fam. group sheet, David and Mary did not have any children between 1817 and 1821]. However, if you determine it is not your David ILER, then there must have been two different Davids at Sharpsburg during the same time period.

(2) from records of the Evangl. Luth. Church of Waynesboro, Franklin Co PA: baptisms of three children of Rev. David EYLER & wife Christiana:

9940 ~~C5681~~ L00411 C5681 * Lo

Maurice Edgar b. 6 DEC 1853 ~~C5681~~

Anna Grace b. 1 MAR 1856 ~~C5681~~

Clarence Albert b. 29 JAN 1858. ~~C5683~~

Given that this David was a minister and that he died at such a young age (34), most likely there would have been a newspaper obituary. This could be very useful in validating your identification of this David as the son of Michael d. 1859.

I hope these ideas will be useful to you. After you have done more research, and perhaps after making another trip East, I would appreciate learning about your findings and conclusions.

Wishing you good luck in your search.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Gehner

1875. At the age of twelve he united with St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Uniontown, Maryland. He attended the public school of that district and later went to the New Windsor College, New Windsor, Maryland, where he studied for three years. He entered the freshman class of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, in the fall of 1893, at the age of eighteen. He was graduated from that institution in 1897 with the A.B. degree. He took his theological course at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, graduating in 1900 with the B.D. degree. Pennsylvania College conferred upon him that year the A.M. degree. The Maryland Synod ordained him at Middletown, Maryland, in October, 1900.

Since entering the gospel ministry he has served the following pastorates: Duncannon, Pennsylvania, 1900-1902; Youngstown, Ohio, 1902-1906; Bethany Lutheran Church, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, 1906 to the present.

He was married to Mary Luella, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. L. K. Hickman, of Steelton, Pennsylvania, on November 6, 1907. He received the honorary degree of D.D. from Oskaloosa College, Iowa, in 1909; the D.D. in course from Central University, Indiana, in 1914; the Ph.D. in course from Central University, Indiana, in 1911. During 1915-1916 he was president of the Pittsburgh Synod; and is now a member of the Ministerial Education Committee and of the Advisory Board of Home Missions of the Pittsburgh Synod.

REV. CLARENCE A. EYLER. The subject of this sketch is the son of the late Rev. Daniel Jacobs Eyler and Christiana C. (nee Kurtz). Rev. Eyler was born at Waynesboro, Franklin County, Pennsylvania, January 29, 1858. He was baptized by Rev. J. F. Campbell, the pastor of the Lutheran Church of Waynesboro, and confirmed at the age of fourteen by Rev. Alfred Buhrman. After graduating from the Waynesboro High School he entered Pennsylvania College, graduating with the class of 1880, and also graduating from the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg with the class of 1883. He was licensed to preach the Gospel by the Maryland Synod at Emmitsburg, Maryland, in 1883 and ordained at Newton, Iowa, in 1884 by the Iowa Synod.

His first pastorate was that of Ely and North Liberty Churches in Iowa, which he served from 1883 to 1885. In the latter year he removed to Lisbon, Iowa, serving the church at Clarence, Iowa, in connection with the Lisbon Church. During this pastorate he was married to Myrtle A. Boston, of Shickshinny, Pennsylvania. The severity of the winters of Iowa so impaired his health that he was compelled to seek a milder climate. Through the efforts of Rev. George D. Gotwald, Minneapolis and Leavenworth, Kansas, were the scenes of his labors from 1887 to 1891. He was again compelled to make a change and returned to Waynesboro, Pennsylvania. He was traveling agent for the Lutheran Observer for one year. Christ's Church of Trenton, New Jersey, was his last pastorate. A very severe illness of eight months necessitated his giving up the active work of the ministry in 1890. Although now engaged in secular work he never misses an opportunity to preach Christ and Him crucified.

REV. PROFESSOR DAVID BITTLE FLOYD, A.M., D.D. Professor Floyd, the son of Hezekiah and Lydia (Bittle) Floyd, was born in Middletown, Maryland, March 15, 1846. In infancy he was baptized in the Middletown Lutheran Church, and in manhood was catechized and confirmed in the Lutheran Church, Salem, Virginia, by his uncle, President David F. Bittle, D.D., of Roanoke College. In 1858 he moved with his parents from Maryland to Indiana. When he was only sixteen years of age in 1862 he joined the United States Army, serving as sergeant for three years in the 75th Indiana Regiment, receiving a commission of lieutenant for meritorious conduct. He fought with Thomas at Chickamauga; with Grant at Chattanooga; and marched with Sherman to the sea.

In 1866 he entered the University of Michigan as a medical student. The following year he prepared for college at Asbury (De Pauw) University, Greencastle, Indiana. In 1868 he entered Roanoke College, Salem, Virginia, graduating in 1872 with second honor, delivering his oration in Greek and receiving his Master's degree after three years. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta (College) fraternity and was its president in 1876. He was again a student of medicine at Bellevue Medical College, New York, in 1872. In 1873 he entered the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, graduating in 1876.

Dear Mr. Kirchner:

In a pile of unrelated papers yesterday, I came across your letter of June 8, 1986, requesting xerox copies, and another letter of November 30, 1986 indicating that you had not heard from me. I find nothing to show that I mailed the copies to you and honestly can't remember. I was getting ready to go to Atlanta over Christmas and then I went to California and then to England, and things were pretty catch as catch can. If you still have not received the Oyler report from the York Historical Society, nor anything from me, please let me know.

Going over my Oyler notebook, I find that I only xeroxed portions of the Griggs and Eilar books. I will be glad to send you those pages. I did not find any Davids* except for my Valentine & Molly (Arndt) Oyler's David, b. 1797, m. Elizabeth Hutts 1824. But I do not have all the pages, especially from Dr. Eilar's book.

* born before 1800

C56 C56B C56/*

Re my Valentine, there were two boys b. 1781 and 1783, but since Griggs gives no proof, it is possible that she is in error on birth dates of the children. Mrs. Griggs is now Mrs. Cleo Griggs Gilchrist, 1610 Holiday Drive, Boise, Idaho (dont have zip). Why dont you write her?

Did Monroe Oyler mention Earl Oyler of Taylorville, IL to you? He really works on Oylers but doesn't write letters. He calls me now and then.

Again, I apologize for my oversight. I feel terrible about this.

I got Dr. Eilar's book on interlibrary loan from the Noblesville, INdiana public library. I have 18 pages xeroxed from it. It has general information that you would want. There are 19 pages in my York County file, but no Davids. David isn't a german name! There are 13 pages from Griggs book. I pay 5¢ a page for xeroxing.

If you find you are from my line, Valentine & Molly, John & Elizabeth, I have copies of their wills and deeds and pictures of their houses in Franklin Co. I can give you.

Please let me know if you want the above copies. I PROMISE I will xerox them promptly.

Sincerely,
Catherine Osborn

You are right about the dates at the Grassmont Cem at Arendtsville.

My Valentine + Molly Cernat had son John (I've seen no other names) who m. Elizabeth Weyaong, and another son Jacob b. c. 1788 or 1792 who m. (1) Susannah (2) Martha Mills ~~on~~ 1857 - he had 4 sons not named probably b. to Susanna. Griggs States her info Come fr Franklin Co Et his records - I've not checked Collateral lines —

Dear Mr. Kirchner:

Received your letter regarding Philip Ohler. I believe it is possible that your Philip is the same as the Philip Peter Ohler in Frederick Co. (possibly the section that is now Carroll Co.) Md. About 1812 there is a deed (Land Record WR-42 p. 496) Philip Peter Oler, John Wellday & Thomas Adams (or rather an agreement regarding their boundaries).

34066 ?

Philip Peter's wife's name was Hannah. I believe that Anna and Hannah could be the same person, as this could be a name variation. I have seen this before.

Hannah Ohler is listed in the 1850 census of Adams Co., PA living with my Orndorff family. Orndorff may be her maiden name.

There are other deeds : Lawrence Ohler-John Ohler JS 22 p. 169.... 30607 — ?
John Sheely-Hannah Ohler JS-3 p. 525, and the one which names her as a widow of Philip Peter Ohler is JS 5 p. 14. 34065

You might also investigate the Baltimore Co. Wills Index 1664 to 1850:

Philip Oler	1826	pg. 245	Book 12	30292 ?
George Oler	1828	96	13
Peter Oler	1840	155/1	18
John Oler	1848	372	22
Margaret Oler	1850	348	23	29633 ?
Erasmus Uhler	1814	481	9	29950
George Uhler	1818	411	10

also check intestate estates

Hannah Ohler, if she is an Orndorff, may be the sister of my ancestor (3rd g-grandfather) Mathias Orndorff. She was living with Mathias's children. I believe she was named as an aunt. Carroll Co. Md is adjacent to Adams Co. Pa. This branch of the Orndorff family was Catholic. Some were Protestant.

There were some baptisms in the Conewago Chapel records (Catholic) of Adams Co.:

30602 30603 30600 30601

Andrew & Margareth Ohler b. 7- ?-1796 Sponsors Peter & Elisabeth Ohler
Maria 30604 bp- 12-21-96

Philip 30292 3-25-1791 Anna Maria Berringer

I must take back something I said earlier. Hannah Ohler is in Union Twp. ADams Co. PA in 1850 living with an Eve Kuhne, ae 54, relationship unknown. But I believe there is another record which I could locate for you, if you ever need it, naming her as "Aunt Hannah Ohler" by a daughter of Mathias Orndorff.

There was another Orndorff family in Sharpsburg, Md., a different branch, although they all knew each other. This was the Christian Orndorff who settled in Sharpsburg around 1760 or so, and left descendants in this area for many years. His farm was the sight of some of the Battle of Antietam (Bloody Alley).

Hannah Ohler, age 70 in the 1850 census, obviously could not be your Anna having a child in 1783.

It is also possible that Iler/Euler is a separate name. But if your Philip disappeared about the same time the othe one pops up in Carroll Co. MD, I would investigate the obvious possibilities.

Check the Baltimore records, too. Carroll Co., MD was formed from both Baltimore and Frederick Counties around 1830 or so. I forget the exact date.

There is also a deed in Rockingham Co. VA Land Book Alterations, 1783 William Young to Peter Oiler. 1455r

If you can connect your Philip to the one in Frederick/Carroll/ Baltimre Co., please let me know. I can be of more help at that time. Anything else would be pointless at this time. I am curious to know what the wills or estate records in Baltimore say. Please let me know if you investigate these.

The Ohler connection is not on my direct line, but I have still spent a fair amount of time researching it as I interested in all of the early Orndorffs.

Good luck, and hope to here back from you,

Camilla Berger

P.S. all these Orndorff branches came to Adams Co. pa & Carroll Co. or Sharpsburg Md. from Lebanon Co. Pa. or Elizj. Twp Lancaster Co. just bordering Lebanon Co.

34065

Co. Maryland as there were deeds for her and Philip Peter Ohler there (then Frederick Co.) in the early 1800's.

Deeds WR 42 p. 496

Philip Peter Oler, John Wellday & Thomas ADams recorded 25 Je 1812:

the above, of Frederick Co., MD, have lands adjoining each other.... (this was a resurvey. Witnesses were John Galt and Michael Harner. ....land near or on tracts Piney Grove and Resurvey on Owings Chance.

JS 5 p. 14

Andrew Ohler, Michael Harner & Catherine Weivel, the following act of release recorded 2nd day May 1815:

34066

Between Hannah Oler of Frederick Co. State of MD widow of Phili Peter Ohler late of said county deceased, and Andrew Ohler, Michael Harner, who married Susanna Ohler, and Catherine Weivel of the other parts... for $319 paid by Andrew Oler Michael Harner and Catherine Weivel...quit claime to them all rights 47 3/4 acres adjoining Thomas ADams

34065

There is also a deed JS 22 p. 169 (1835) between a John Ohler and hawrence Oleron tract called Milton's paradise.

Baltimore Co. wills index shows wills for:

Peter Oler	1840	155/18
PhilipOler	1826	245/12
George Oler	1828	96/13
John Oler	1848	372/22
Margaret Oler	1850	348/23
Erasmus Uhler	1814	481/9
George Uhler	1818	411/10

Since Carroll Co. was formed partly from Baltimore Co. in 1837 (and partly from Frederick Co.) these Ohlers could have been living in the same place in Carroll Co., MD. I haven't looked at the wills. I don't think Hannah left an estate record.

I have had correspondence with a Mrs. W.R. Eckhardt, Treemont: Apt. A-107, 2501 Westerland Dr. of Houston, TExas 77063 regarding the Oyler line in Pa. and in Va., believe it might be yours. & Rockingham Co., VA. You might contact her. I am interested in anything more on this Philip Peter Ohler. I believe the Catharine Weivel was probably a relative also. One of Christena Orndorff's sisters married a Weivel, but this Catharine was not related to her.

It is possible that Hannah Ohler was a second wife. I don't know if she was actually the mother of any of his children. There is no proof of that.

If you can shed any light, let me know as I am very interested in her.

Have you a group sheet on the early Arndts? the first two generations? Maybe some collateral lines might click.

Dear Ralph,

Ive looked through my records. Your David could possibly have been a brother to John Iler, Sr. son of Jacob Eyler. Although I have the names of 5 children there may have been more.

Ive also checked other records and the book written by Mr. John Eilar of Albuquerque, New Mexico and didnt find anything for you.

You may wish to check with Ronald Iler, 3419 Mission Rd., Stockton, Ca 95204. He has been researching the Iler family for several years.

Enclosed are records of Jacob Eyler and John Iler of Cumberland County, Pa.

Our first direct ancestor to arrive in North America was Jacob Eyler. He arrived in Philadelphia on September 30, 1774. He sailed from Rotterdam by way of Porthmouth, England on the ship Union. The ships master was Captain Andrew Bryson.

In 1776 Jacob volunteered for the City Militia and went on to fight in the Revolutionary War. In August 1832 at the age of 85 he applied for a pension. The following transcript was filed as part of that application.

State of Pennsylvania
Cumberland County,

On this fifteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two personally appeared in open court before the Honorable John Reed Esq., President and his associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas at a court now holding in the Borough of Carlisle, in and for the County of Cumberland aforesaid, Jacob Eyler, a resident of the Borough of Carlisle, in the County and State aforesaid aged eighty-five years on the twenty-fifth day of July last past, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his Oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed the 4th day of June AD, 1832, vis - I was born on the 25th, July AD 1747 in the town of Sovernheim, in the Palatinate (now Kingdom of Bavaria) in Germany, from whence I imigrated to North America and arrived in the city of Philadelphia, in the month of September 1774 and resided there 'till some time in the beginning of the month of December 1776 when I volunteered as a Private, under a Captain Wills, in the first Battalion called the City Militia, commanded by Col. Morgan. Previous to this no militia law was passed nor at this time. The subaltern officers of our Company were Lieutenant Rees and Ensign Heil. On our arrival near Trenton, we remained in the shallups for several hours waiting for orders. When we landed on the Pennsylvania side and encamped in the woods opposite Trenton without tents (nor had we any during the whole campaign) where we remained for some time, then marched back to Bristol, where we remained until the 25th day of December 1776, on which day we attempted to cross the River Delaware, but were prevented by the ice! Until the following day when we crossed some short distance above Bristol and then marched to Burlington, where we were attached to Gen. Cadwallader's Brigade and the next day marched to Bordentown from thence to Crosswicks, where our Company lodged in a Quaker Meeting House. Here we remained until in the night of the 20th, January 1777 when we marched to Trenton. Some short time after our arrival, the enemy appeared. We were drawn up in order of battle when the cannonading commenced and lasted until evening. We then removed some short distance in to a piece of woods, where we encamped and lighted our fires. About midnight we silently withdrew and marched to Princeton where we arrived some few hours after sunup. Here we met some of the British and had a considerable engagement in which we captured about three hundred prisoners from the Battle Ground. We marched through several towns and places (the names of which I cannot now remember) and in two days arrived in Morristown where we remained untill the expiration of the term of our service sometime in February, when at the special request of General Washington we remained in service upwards of three weeks longer than our full time and untill the reinforcements arrived and then we returned to Philadelphia.

I never received more than a verbal discharge from the officers and about four weeks after our return we were ordered to muster and were drawn up in a circle, when a letter from his Excellency, General Washington was read thanking us for our service rendered to the country.

Some time in the month of March on April 1780. I do not recollect when, I was ordered out in the Eighth class of City Militia commanded by Captain Conrad Rush when I was again called on duty in and near the city of Philadelphia guarding prisoners and deserters and near the expiration of said term I was attacked with a violent fever of which I was confined between seven and eight weeks under the care of Dr. Alkenson, Physician of the Regiment. By reason of my removal from the City in the year 1784 to said Borough of Carlisle (where I have resided ever since), as also from the best information from time to time received on inquiry, I firmly believe that none of my officers or companions in arms are now living, that at the time I was out in service the first and second tour of duty and confined by sickness while in service as aforesaid amounted in the whole to upwards of seven months.

I have no documenting evidence to prove my different terms of service nor do I know any person living who can testify to them.

I hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except to the present and declare that my name is not on the Pension Roll of the agency of any state whatever.

Jacob Eyler

Sworn to and Subscribed the Fifteenth day of August AD 1832 as aforesaid before J. W. Harper Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Cumberland County, Penn.

17298 (ILER)

From records of the Lutheran Reformed Church in Pennsylvania we find that Jacob Eyler's wife's name was Barbara and that they had five of their children christened there.

1. Catharina 2) C.B: Feb. 23, 1788 — b. 21 DEC 1787 — 7707
2. John 2) B: Aug. 3, 1792 D: May 21, 1872 * 17300 NK!
3. Susanna 2) B: Mar. 5, 1794 7718
4. Valentine 2) B: Mar. 20, 1796 7719
5. Barbara 2) B: Mar. 25, 1804 7928

Records state that Jacob's wife Barbara was born approx. 1770 which would have made her about eighteen years old at the time of her first child. Whereas Jacob arrived just four years prior to this and he was the only Eyler on the ship's passenger list I am assuming this was his first marriage.

John Iler Sr. 2) was born in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania on August 3, 1792 the son of Jacob and Barbara Eyler. He migrated to Ohio about 1812 and settled at Newark, Licking County where on May 22,1813 he married Magdelena Switzer. On August 1, 1813 he enlisted in the Military Service of the United States in the War of 1812. He served in Capt. John Bartholomew's Company. While in the military he was listed on the rolls as John Oiler which created a problem in later years when applying for Bounty Land and Pension. The follwing document is an affidavit by two soldiers who served with him.

State of Ohio
Licking County

On this 25 day of March 1854 personally appeared before me Danial A.b. Klene a Justus of the Peace in the said County and State, William Horn and Henry B. Trout who first being by me duly sworn deposetts and say that they are aquainted with John Iler of Seneca Co. Ohio an applicant for Bounty Lands under the act of March 3, 1855 whose claim has been suspended. We were well aquainted with said John Iler at the time he was drafted into the service of the United States in the War of 1812.

Said John Iler was drafted at Newark, Licking County Ohio into Capt. Bartholowem's Company Ohio Militia and joined to Major Wilsons and Col. Williamsons Divisons at Frankleton Ohio and marched from there to Upper Sandusky Ohio at which place he was discharged by Gov. Meigs.

Said John Iler was in active service in Said Capt. Bartholowem's Company for the term of seventeen days or more and we further say , that the said John Iler of Seneca County is the same man and we cannot be mistaken in his identity but that we believe he was called John Oiler at that time and the said Henry B. Trout on his oath says that he called the roll of Said Capt. Bartholowem's Company and honestly believes the said John Iler was called John Oiler on the muster roll of said Company, we were both drafted into the same company at the same time with the said John Iler and were in the same mess with him and recollect him and the circumstances of his service and discharge well. He was discharged at the same time with us and returned with us to Licking Co. Ohio.

In testimony there of we have set our hand and seal.

William Horn
Henry Trout

While living in Licking County, Jacob, John's and Magdelena's first child was born. He was to be the first of fifteen children. They lived in Licking County until approximately 1816 then migrated north to Richland County. While living in Richland County ten more children were born. In 1833 they moved west to Seneca County and settled in Jackson Township near where the present town of Iler, Ohio is now located and there the last four children were born. John died May 21, 1872.
